

You can't judge integrity and leadership from a resume...

...and that's why you need a professional executive recruitment partner.

RESUMES DON'T TELL YOU THE FULL STORY.

Yes, you can use resumes to help you filter out people who don't have the technical skills or background that you need to move your company forward. But does it answer your most important question? The ability to work within your company's culture? Their long term personal goals? Their leadership qualities and ability to motivate others?

WE DO THE RESEARCH YOU CAN'T.

We can ask the hard questions and probe situations that you can't. We are trusted advisors to our candidates as much as we are to you. Not only do we want them to succeed for you but we also have a responsibility to make sure it's the right move for them personally. We can find out what a candidate's true desires are and whether or not they mesh with your needs and demands.

WE SAVE YOU TIME, MONEY & STRESS.

Our job is people. Talented people who make a difference. So we won't waste your time (or a candidate's or even our time) on opportunities that don't match. You have a business to run. So why not do what you do best and allow us to do what we do best? Which is define the type of people you need, do the recruitment, do the screening and do the background research? You sit back and at a pre-agreed time, we'll present you with the candidates that match the criteria we've mutually agreed upon. If it sounds simple, it's because it is.

RECRUITMENT, NOT RESUMES.

We don't collect resumes. We network with talented people. And then we bring companies and individuals together to solve problems and achieve solutions.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

We stand behind our proven systems and our people. So not only do you save time, money and reduce stress - you also don't have any risk. Do you currently have that available to you?

Peter Drucker, Jim Collins, Tom Peters have all said that the key to success is people. What's your commitment?
